Canada's National Ukrainian Festival Vendor Policy in the Event of Cancellation or Postponement Effective April 2021

In the event were Canada's National Ukrainian Festival is canceled or postponed due to unforeseen circumstances the following policy will be in effect on the day of cancellation or postponement of the event. All vendors will be notified of the event cancellation or postponement in written confirmation within fourteen (14) days of the release of cancellation or postponement.

Canada's National Ukrainian Festival does not have a deadline for Vendor Applications for the year the event is taking place. Vendor spots are first come first serve each year. Once Vendor spots are filled, Canada's National Ukrainian Festival no longer accepts applications. The following policy has been put in place for Vendors in the event Canada's National Ukrainian Festival is cancelled or postponed.

Vendors will have the following options available:

- Vendors can request a full refund for the fees paid to Canada's National Ukrainian Festival. Vendors will forfeit their vendor spot. Vendors must submit written communication to Canada's National Ukrainian Festival if they want a full refund. Should they wish to reapply again the following year, the Vendor will have to resubmit an application and full payment.
- Vendors can request the paid fees, to be applied for the next occurring festival. The agreed upon Merchant or Food Vendor placement, confirmed by Canada's National Ukrainian Festival office, will carry over to the next occurring festival.

If the Vendors choose to keep their spot for the next festival written confirmation must be submitted to Canada's National Ukrainian Festival, no later than thirty (30) days after receiving confirmation of event cancellation or postponement. All Vendors that request a refund will have the funds returned to them within ninety (90) days of the cancellation or postponement.

Vendors will have no more than thirty (30) days to respond back to Canada's National Ukrainian Festival after the vendor has received written confirmation of the event cancellation or postponement. Vendors must respond in written confirmation as to which option was chosen.
